

MYC 2007 One Design July Series Results

One design racing this summer has seen its share of weather challenges. The first day of races on June 16th began after a morning rain dissipated into a cloudy day with a light and variable easterly breeze. We were able to get 5 races run. In the Rhodes fleet Louisa Mackintosh, skippering Wildflower won, with Casey Thomas a close second and Lisa Ginn coming in third for the day. In the Megabyte fleet Holly Fabyan won, as usual, followed by Sandy McIntyre and Roland Glidden.

The second race day, July 6th, was canceled due to the thickest afternoon fog that Manchester harbor as seen in my memory. You couldn't see across the harbor.

The third race day was split with the Rhodes racing at Eastern Point in the Cape Ann Challenge and the Megabytes at home. Rhodes 19 Cape Ann Challenge Race began on Friday evening when four MYC boats under-tow to Eastern Point YC encountered an unexpected lightning squall (30-40 knots), upon entering Gloucester Harbor. Under severe weather, and almost impossible visibility, the boat drivers (Braden Winn, Barb Thomas, Charlie Thomas, and Pat Kozak) were guided to secure moorings. Hats off to Braden Winn and Cal Holt for exhibiting exemplary seamanship skills during such horrific weather conditions. If only a quarter of the wind experienced during the boat delivery on Friday evening could have hung around for the race on Sunday, it would have made for more challenging racing. Unfortunately, the start of racing was delayed twice on July 20, 2008 in hopes that wind conditions might improve. At 2PM, fifteen boats gathered from Eastern Point, Sandy Bay, and Manchester Yacht Club to race under very light wind (0-4 knots).

Five boats competed from MYC: Salty Dog, Aralia, Misery, Wasabi, and Wildflower. Late day thunderstorms resulted in canceling the start of the second race, and a scramble to the clubhouse bar, by all racers. At the end of the day, Sandy Bay Yacht Club was awarded the Rhodes-19 Challenge Trophy for the top three boats with lowest individual scores. Sandy Bay also received first and third place individual awards, with Eastern Point Yacht Club taking second place. MYC finished third of the three clubs, with Charlie Thomas (Salty Dog) crossing the line first, followed by Aralia, Misery, Wildflower, and Wasabi. Thanks to Jeff Bistrong for planning and coordinating this memorable event.

The Megabytes managed to get off four races in a very light easterly breeze before the thunder storms hit. In the Megabytes Holly Fabyan won every race followed by Marc Poirier in second and Emmett Holt.

Many thanks to the race committee of Peter Twining, John Bradley and Sally Curry for running a variety of interesting races.
